DETAILS are now to hand as to the returns Greenock, where Sir Thomas Sutherland, the late Liberal: Unionist member, was declared to have been defeated by a majority of 44, whereupon his supporters demanded a scratiny. In one of the Wards where the register contained the names of 840 electors 873 votes were recorded, and when both candidates' figures are added the total is really aco above the actual votes polled. It is clear, therefore, that either the counting was very faulty, or that personation on a large scale was practised. "Poll early and often," The loaders of both parties (says the Press Association) are now quite agreed that a serious mistake occurred in connection with the counting of votes, and that 200 have been counted twice Mr. Bruce, the Liberal candidate, only obtained a majority of 44. which, was reversed by the
